CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

Acknowledgement of Authority.

This Church as a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, affirms and acknowledges the authority of the said Church.

ARTICLE II.

The Church in Convention.

Section 1. The Church in this Diocese shall meet in Convention on the last Tuesday in May in every year at such place as shall be appointed at the preceding Convention; but for any sufficient cause arising subsequent to the Convention, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may change the time and place of such session, provided that the time appointed shall not be more than one month earlier or three months later than the stated time of meeting.

Section 2. The Ecclesiastical Authority shall have power to call special Conventions. The purpose or purposes for which such Conventions are called, shall be duly stated in the notice thereof, and no other business shall be transacted at such Special Convention than that stated in the notice thereof.

ARTICLE III.

Representation in Convention.

Section 1. Every Clergyman canonically resident in the Diocese shall have a seat in the Convention.

Section 2. The Bishop, and the Assistant Bishop if there be one, and every

There is one self-existing God, the great Jehovah; there are three persons in the Divine Essence, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost, and these three are one; the everlasting electing love of God, whereby his people are chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world; the fall of man and total depravity of human nature, by which they are rendered incapable of performing any spiritual actions of themselves; the atonement of the Lord Jesus Christ, by which satisfaction was rendered to the law and justice of God for all his people; efficacious grace in regeneration; justification by the imputed righteousness of Christ; the final perseverance of the saints in grace to glory; believers' baptism by immersion; the resurrection of the body, and general judgment; the everlasting happiness of the elect, and the everlasting punishment of the wicked.
